BUNDLES FOR AMERICA PARTY BRINGS GAY THRONG HERE; DECIDED SOCIAL SUCCESS

The Italia Mia garden party of the Bundles for America local chapter was a complete success finaniially as well as sorially.

Final returns from the sale of tirkets are not in yet but the committee in charge said a goodly sum had been realized.

It was a lovely affair and the occasion for parties given by prominent Sierra Madreans to groups of friends from Pasadena, Flintridge, Los Angeles and other cities. It was a scene from an old-world painting, gay dresses of young girls, musicians in peasant costume, house gay with flags, tables brightly decorated with cloths and glassware, terraces gently sloping to a fairy-like fountain at the end of the aisle of Irish yews, and the picture accented with low laughter, with strains of guitar, harp tnd accordion, with vibrating tones of guests happy in a recess from violent activities, from grave and somber thoughts. A pastoral scene, one that will live long in memory.

The gardens were as beautiful as they have always been, hostesses charming as they served punch in the tea garden not far from the lotus pond, presided on the terace at the sale of tickets for pictures so generously donated by Sierra Madre's Alfred Dewey and Pasadena's Geraldine Birch, and superintended the bevy of girls who brought trays of refreshments to patrons at tables on the cross walks.

As the sun sank below the poplars and giant bamboo trees the scene was enlivened by auctioning off of a bill brought through the flight from Java when "Dr." Wassell so gallantly brought his "buddies" in safety to Australia. Mrs. May Wright of West Gand View was the purchaser, the proceeds going to the Navy Relief. Mrs. R. C. Lewis of 350 Neher Drive won Mr. Dewey's lovely landscape, while Mrs. Merritt M. Williams of 310 E. Highland won the floral piece by Miss Birch.

Songs from a group near the piano on the terrace brought lumps to the throats of listeners. "Dr." Wassell held his audience spell-bound when in the deepening twilight his erect soldierly figure becoming less and less distinct, his vibrant tones took his hearers with him as he buried 67 of his "buddies," and brought nine others out of prison camp home. It was dusky under the trees when the guests had finished a tasty supper served on the lawn and reluctantly turned their steps toward their cars, bidding adieu to Italia Mia and its charm.

May Name School Head This Evening

A new school superintendent and principal may be elected at a meeting of the local schol board scheduled for the grammar school building this evening. Several candidates for the position were interviewed by the directors during a meeting a week ago and while no selection was made or promises given, one or two applicants were said to have made rather favorable impressions. More aspirants will appear before the board this evening and there is no certainty that the hunt for the right man will not continue for a while.

The board will also consider this evening the appointment of a full time musical instructor and a librarian who has a teacher's credential. Both positions have been open since the close of the school year. At last week's board session Richard Pendergast of 116 Auburn avenue was appointed custodian of the school building, a position that has been open for several weeks. Mr. Pendergast entered upon his duties at once and is getting the school plant in readiness for opening of the school year in September.

A Bit Warm

After ten days of the most delightwul weather imagineable the mercury pointed up Friday and climbed until it reached 106 Tuesday when Sierra Madre was given a touch of real summer weather. Temperatures for the week have been:

Temperature	Max	Min.
July 22	88	60
July 233	96	64
July 24	96	64
July 25	96	63
July 26	100	68
July 27	106	68
July 28	997	64

Work of Red Cross Will Be Shown

Townspeople at Open House To See What is Being Accomplished Here

Guests of the local Red Cross chapter at the open house Friday at the headquarters will not only be welcomed but have an opportunity to see specimens of the work being turned out by Sierra Madre men and women for the various war and other activities of the organization. Officers and workers of the chapter are proud of the cheerful, newly arranged and decorated quarters and hope there will be a good turnout of the townspeople.

While the making of surgical dressings and clothing for the men at the battlefronts, packing and shipping of comfort kits are perhaps the most important work being carried on for the moment, these are not all of the year round activities by any means.

Chairman R. C. Lewis of the chapter feels that the volunteer workers are doing a most praiseworthy and patriotic job and looks for a good turn-out to-morrow of local citizens, especially of those who are wondering how they can serve in the war effort.

There is work for every woman in the material she likes best to work with. A new shipment of olive-green yarn is arriving within a few days for knitters in the community, and the boys in Alaska and the Aleutians are asking for watch-caps, turtle-neck sweaters, gloves, helmets and toe socks.

Miss Jean Woodward who is in charge of the making of cotton hospital garments needs helpers on pajamas, slippers and other bed garments.

Operation Proves Fatal to Mrs. May Schneeberger

Mrs. May Schneeberger, for many years a teacher at the grammar school here and Past Worthy Matron of the Sierra Madre O. E. S. chapter died at the Monterey Park Alhambra Hospital Monday following an emergency operation. She left Sierra Madre a year ago and had been teaching on the desert; coming to Alhambra to visit her daughter at the end of the school ear.

Mrs. Schneeberger was born in Chicago but had resided in California for 35 years. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Thomas of Alhambra and Mrs. Elizabeth Woods of Anchorage, Alaska, and a granddaughter Nancy Thomas of Alhambra. Surviving also are three brothers: Harold Summerways of Riverside, William Summerways of Memphis, Tenn. and Edgar Summerways of Los Angeles.

She had lived here for 25 years with the exception of the past year which she ad spent teaching in Red Mountain, Cal.

Joint servies by the Eastern Star and the Congregational Church will be held today (Thursday) at 11:00 a.m. at Grant Chapel with the Rev. Frederic Groetsema officiating. Janet Wood will be soloist.

Rule Animals And Birds Out of Fair

Committee Completes Plans Next Week's Victory Garden Exhibit

Sierra Madre's community Victory Garden Fair on August 6 will be held at the grammar school. The entries will be confined to local gardens and orchards, meaning that proposals to throw a truly rural atmosphere about the event by including chickens, rabbits, goats and hogs among the exhibits have been vetoed.

These were just a few of the decisions reached by the Victory Garden committee last Thursday evening when several committees were appointed, various organizations were invited to take an interest in the affair and a general program for conduct of the Fair was laid out.

A committee appointed to contact local Victory gardeners and encourage them to list entries consists of Mrs. Edward Halperin, Mrs. Frank Spencer, E. E. Hitchcock, Dan Reib, F. D. R. Moote, Mrs. Peter Thill, Mrs. A. J. Barkman, W. A. McTavish, Mrs.R. D. Andrews, Mrs. Ethel Henderson, Mrs. Arthur Udell and the Scoutmasters of the three Boy Scout Troops, Daniel H. Rauscher, Harry Caskey and Hilliard Bernard.

Mrs. Halperin will be in charge of the entry book. Ford F. S. Blakeman will have charge of numbering the entries and direct their location .Three judges to pass upon the entries were named but only one of them had been contacted for his acceptance yesterday. He is L. Ramsaur of W. Sierra Madre bvd. who has 40 ears as an operator of large ranches in Ventura county and the Imperial Valley. Mr. Ramsaur has accepetd the appointment.

A rule adopted by the committee provides that no entries of less than a portion o fany fruit or vegetable suitable for an average human being with a good appetite will be accepted. That is the minimum .The sky is the limit in hte other direction—the maximum. "Purpose of this rule," said a member of hte committee, "is to rule out a food entry consisting of only one or two beans, a single tomato, etc."

The committee was sorry to disappoint backyard farmers who are raising fancy chickens and rabbits, many of whom wanted to enter some of their stock, but School Superintendent Smith said there was no place at the school where they might be exhibited. It followed that goats and hogs were not wanted. Half a dozen citizens proposed to enter one or more goats each and three had young pigs they wanted to show off.

Entries of flowers, on the other hand, will be doubly welcome and it is hoped there will be many offerings from the city's many wonderful flower gardens.

Entries for the fair should arrive at the school building before 1 o'clock on August 6. Judges will pass on the entries from 2 until 3 o'clock. At 3 o'clock a colored motion picture showing the planting, cultivation and harvesting of a Victory garden will be shown. The Fair will close as the sun sinks in the West.

Woman Who Needs It Badly Loses Money Here

There is a newcomer in Sierra Madre, delicate in health, a servant of the children of the community. A faithful teacher, she has been told by her doctor that a year of rest is essential to her future well-being. Now she has lost a ten dollar bill on the streets here. It is to be hoped the finder realizes how great a loss a ten dollar bill can be to a sick woman who cannot work for another year and return the money to her. She offers to reward the finder through the News office.

Four Sierra Madre Men Receive Call In July Draft

Four more Sierra Madreans were included in the July draft call of the Sierra Madre-Arcadia-Monrovia district Selective Service Board. They reported Monday for induction into the armed services.

Those called are William B. Schwartz, Russell Wayne Jensen, Leo J. Schultz and Martin Valesquez.

The district quota was considerably smaller than was expecteo due to a recent order calling for a reduction in all California quotas to bring them into line with others throughout the country. A similar order is expected to hold down the August quota, with the probability that the one in September will take out quite a few more men, including some now employed in defense industries whose employers have given notice that others are in training to take their places.

Conserso's Annual Carnival Will be Held August 6

Young women of the Congregational Church will hold their annual Conserso carnival in Pritchard Hall, Friday, Aug. 6, at 7 p.m. All kinds of booths "just for fun" will be set up. There will be a fish-pond and a fortune-teller, and other accessories of a carnival. Movies will be shown, an orchestra will be provided, and there will be dancing. Hot-dogs, lemonade, and popcorn will be served, and the public is cordially invited to be present. There will be no charge at the door.

Death Calls Mrs. May Smith Pipkin

Mrs. May Smith Pipkin passed away Wednesday morning at a Pasadena hospital. Services will be held Friday morning July 30, at 11 o'clock at Grant Chapel with the Rev. Stuart Sherriff officiating.

With Sierra Madre Boys In Service

Capt. Marlin Wyatt, wife and two small children of San Antonio, Texas ,are a t61 W. Highland ave., while Capt. Wyatt is finishing a course at the Santa Ana Flight School.

V . . . —

Cp. Robert M. Tarr, son of N. W. Tarr of 274 W. Montecito ave., returned Sunday to Camp McCain in Mississippi where he is a member of the Signal Corps. Cpl. Tarr suffered two broken bones in his right leg in a motorcycle accident while on duty as a member of the Military Police at Camp McCain. Since he will be incapacitated for several months he hopes to be hospitalized in Camp Kennedy, Memphis, Tenn. following his return to McCain.

V . . . —

Mrs. Katie Eiting of 196 W. Montecito ave., reports that her oldest son, Harvey, who has been stationed at Camp Perry, Vermont, is leaving there for Florida. The younger son, Herschel, has arrived in Pine Camp, New York, from Tenn. He had a three-day pass to go to see Jack Graham of Sierra Madre now stationed at Syracuse, New York. Jack and Herschel volunteered at the same time, but were separated and had not seen each other since.

V . . . —

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Adams of 265 San Gabriel Court are expecting their son Frank home on furlough Saturday, July 31, from the Navy Training Station at Farragut, Idaho. Frank writes that his company received highest honors for being the best drilled company in Camp Bennion.

V . . . —

Marvin Thomas, now an Aviation Machinists Mate 3rd class in the Navy, was home early in the week to spend a 36-hour leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eber Thomas of Canyon Park. He has been transferred from the Naval base at North Island to Camp Kearney, near San Diego.

V . . . —

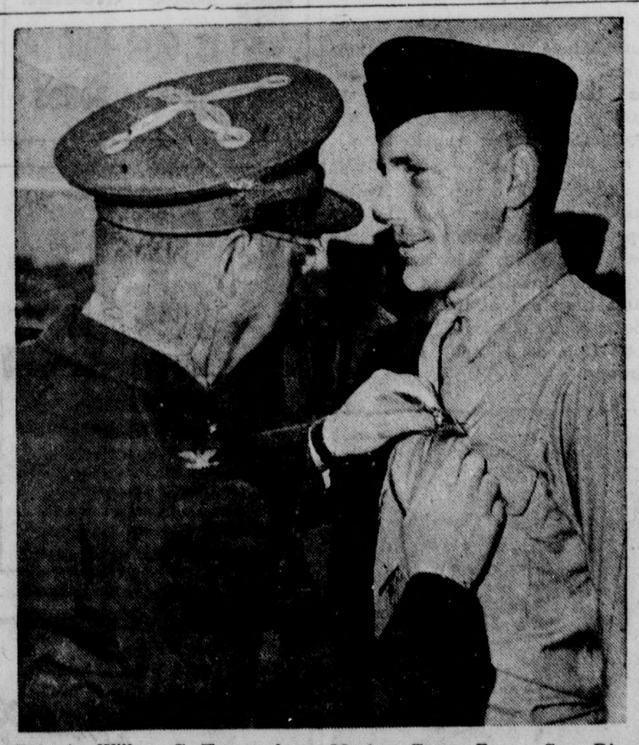

Word comes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Begler of E. Orange Grove ave., that their son, and Mrs. Carlton Pegler of E. transferred from the Naval base at Miami, Fla., to Stamford, Conn., and that he is momentarily expecting active duty in the Atlantic. Before entering the Navy he was connected with the International Fish and Game Commission and spent much of his time in the Alaska area. He received his early Navy training at Treasure Island.

V . . . —

Pfc. Bill Evans, formerly of the Sierra Madre post office, has been assigned to the Recruit Depot Post Office, Marine Corps Base in San Diego.

V . . . —

Walton W. Bayard, Navy Pharmacists Mate, who has been finishing a course in pharmacy at Columbia University, New York City, visited with his father, W. W. Bayard of 305 E. Laurel, and his sister, Doris Webster of Tujunga, for several days last week.

Private Wilbur G. Evans, husband of Mrs. Phyllis M. Evans, 79 E. Highland, Sierra Madre, is shown being awarded the United States Marine Corps Honor Badge of Efficiency by Colonel George T. Hall, commanding officer of the recruit depot at the Marine Corps Base, San Diego. This award is made to the man who, in the opinion of his instructors, has shown particular aptitude and efficiency in military training, and is open to every man in each recruit training platoon.

CAST BEING SELECTED FOR "MOTHER MOUNTAIN" PAGEANT AT GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Costumes Worn in 80's and 90's Needed for the Players

While there are several more roles to be filled in the pageant "Mother Mountain"—as might be imagined, with its history starting from 1837—the boys and girls of Sierra Madre are taking advantage of being on the job pronto at the try-outs.

Among the girls assigned to parts are Sylvia and Joan Young, Elizabeth and Geraldine Ward, Rita Dotts, Joan Maltby, Patricia and Julie DeBolt, Sheilah Webster, Sally Janes, Alison Ann Groetsema, Mary Louise Pollgreen, Carolyn Maloney, Patricia Marshall, Nancy Morgan, Patricia Halperin, Shirley Peterson, Elva Pickett, Antonia Velencia.

Boys assured parts in the cast include Paul Worthington, John Clauss, Warren Peterson, Calvin Floyd, Bobby Morgan, Joe Davis, Robert and Richard Cortez, "Poncho" Valencia, George Cordry Loren James ,and Donald Krug.

Michael Suman is stage and "properties" man ,as well as "Lucky" Baldwin" in the play.

Mrs. Floyd who has written the story and will conduct the pageant, says, "This is the children's show, and I want them to have all the responsibility they can cary."

How did the men, women, and children dress in the 80's and 90's —and what have Sierra Madreans up in the attic or in an old trunk, that would help costume the players in the pageant? "We would take loving, gentle care of anything entrusted to us," assures Mrs. Floyd.

"Also ,we would like to have a worth-while exhibit of the early days. The Historical Society will make its contribution, but does any resident possess an heirloom or old document of any kind that would be interesting to the public? All exhibits will be under supervision of the school."

Any costumes ,accessories, and exhibits may be brought to the grammar school—open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.—or if persons will phone Mrs. Floyd at 5548—she will try to arrange to have them picked up.

Costly Plant Here Given The Army

General Young Turns Citrus Electrical Equipment Over To Camp Santa Anita

The elaborate system of infrared lighting equipment on the model citrus orchard of the East Orange Grove estate of General Edward Clinton Young is down at Camp Santa Anita now. General Young donated it to the camp and the hundreds of poles, many thousands of feet of wire and other valuable equipment were taken down by the boys of the Signal Corps and set up at the camp which is coming to be considered more and more as a permanent institution.

It is most useful where it is now installed; there was much question about its worth in the orange grove. The costly system was installed by a former owner, a Chicago insurance magnate. Its purpose was to make the trees in the highly productive orchard more resistant to frost. The theory was that by constant use the infra_red lights would stimulate the trees and build up this resistance. These lights were installed overhead at chort intervals between the rows. Half a dozen orchards located in as many different areas were so equipped by growers for experimental purposes and operated for several years. The experiments were watched with keenest interest by orchardists all over the world, but by none with greater care than the California co-operative grower organizations and the University of California which kept all the groves, including the one here, under constant observation.

A year or so ago experts of the university at the Davis experimental farms and leading growers pronounced the system ineffective.

Now the lights were badly needed at the Ordnance camp and the scarcity of electrical wiring and incidental equipment made the system particularly valuable to the Army. General Young was happy to have it put to such good use.

Family Hears From Ben Lyon, Jr., in Jap Prison Camp

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lyon of Canyon Crest drive have just had their first direct word from their son, Ben Jr. since he was taken prisoner by the Japs with the fall of Corrigedor. They received a card Monday written by him in a Japanese prison camp, in Japan. Last previous word they had was in March when they were advised by the War Department that he was being held by the Japanese at Taiwan camp, near Formosa, where Brig. General Clinton Young, also of Sierra Madre, was confined. There has been no word since that time about General Pierce and he may or may not have eben transferred to Japan.

Probably of necessity the card from young Lyon was brief. It was dated December 21, 1942, and came through the International Red Cross at Geneva, being forwarded here by the Provost Marshal General's office. He wrote simply: "Dear Mother: I am well and safe in Japan. I have had no news of the family since December, 1941. How are you and the family? Hope you are all well. Love, Ben Jr."

All a Mistake

Motorists misled by radio broadcasters into believing they might use coupons of their "A" gas books for vacation excursions are due for a bitter disappointment, according to Dr. A. O. Pritchard of the local Price and Rationing Board. No such thing will be allowed, an OPA bulletin received by the ration boards yesterday announced. It was emphatic on the subject. The broadcasters had no ground for their announcement.

Increase In School Tax Probable

Cost of Instruction Jumps as 17 Teachers are Voted Raises of $100

If the budget prepared by the Sierra Madre school board is approved by the county supervisors Sierra Madreans are in for an increase of two or three cents per $100 of assessed valuation in their taxes for school purposes in he 1943-1944 fiscal ears.

Cost of operating the school plant is fixed in the budget at $64,110 as against $60,485 during the fiscal year 1942-1943. Much of this is accounted for under the head of instruction, as teachers salaries, each of the 17 teachers having been voted a flat increase of $100 a year, or $10 a month for each of the ten months that the school is in session. This advance was made to help meet the increased cost of living. The school superintendent_principal was not included in the increase, his salary being provided for by contract.

The total amount to be raised by local taxation, as called for by the budget, is $27,246, an increase of $4,273 over the budget approved for the year 1942_1943.

A public hearing on the budget will be held by the school board at the school building at 7:30 next Monday evening, August 2. The budget in detail is published elsewhere in this issue of the News.

KIINGDOM MESSAGE SERVICE SWITCHED

The regular Kingdom message services have been changed from Sunday morning to Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Charles T. Rees, who formerly conducted the services, is now assisting Dr. J. A. PICNIC PARTY HONORS MISSOURI VISITOR

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller of 51 E. Sierra Madre blvd. were hosts Sunday to a gay party that picnicked at Charlton Flats. Among guests were Mr. and Mr. Art Miller, Riverside; Lieut. and Mrs. Evans of Bella Vista Terrace; Mrs. Dave Gilmore of N. Baldwin ave.; Gus Hardesty of Esperanza ave., and Miss May Marset of Springfield, Mo. Tiny six-month old Brian Dennis Miller, also among those present rivaled the hamburgers and watermelons as the center of attention.

BRINGS ARCADIA FRIENDS TO GARDEN PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Williams of 1615 Perkins Drive, Arcadia, were hosts to a group of friends at the Bundles For America garden party at Italia Mia Saturday evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Galbally, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Ware of The Oaks, and Mrs. Seitz, mother of Mrs. Ware, who is visiting her daughter, from Reno.

MISS PRITCHARD HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Business and pleasure were united at a charming luncheon given by Miss Martha Pritchard Tuesday noon at her home, 121 E. Algeria. ave. Those present were Mrs. Convers Twycross, Mrs. Milo Sabin, Mrs. Frederic Groetsema, Mrs. Don Hinkley, Mrs. Ford Blakeman, Mrs. Walter Brown, and Miss Marjorie Adams. The topic for discussion was the fall program for the Womans Missionary Society of the Congregational Church.

CHRISTINE MEADER WEDS AN ARTILLERYMAN

At a quiet wedding last Wednesday, July 21, at the Church of the Ascension, Christine Joan Meader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Meader of 541 Orange Grove was united in marriage to Staff Sgt. Medley Lee Brown of Kansas.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dean Arnold Bode before friends and relatives to the accompaniment of soft music rendered on the organ by Mrs. Towner of Pasadena. The bride, in a suit of blue wool with hat to match, wore a corsage of gardenias, while her only attendant, her cousin, Patricia Thompsett of Los Angeles, also wore a suit of blue with white hat ,and a corsage of gardenias. The groom's best man was George Andrews of Sierra Madre.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home which was charmingly decorated in blue and white flowers arranged by Mrs. Sylvia Quittner. After dispensing the four-tier wedding cake the bride and groom left for their honeymoon in Big Bear.

Miss Meader is a graduate from Sawyer's Business College in Pasadena ,and is employed in a secretarial position in Long Beach. Sgt. Brown received his education in Kansas ,and is stationed at Camp Rucker, Alabama, with the Headquarters Batery of the 35th Artillery ,Division.

Mrs. Brown will continue her residence in Sierra Madre when Sgt. Brown returns to duty at the expiration of his fifteen day furlough.

A.L.A. Activities

At a Unit meeting held at the home of Mrs. Val Miller Thursday arrangements were made for the installation ceremony which will take place at 8 o'clock Thursday, Aug. 12, at the home of Sylvia Quittner, 241 Ramona ave., with Maybelle Barker as co-hostess. Special guests will be prospective members and the mothers and wives of service men. Members planning to bring guests will call 5458 for reservations.

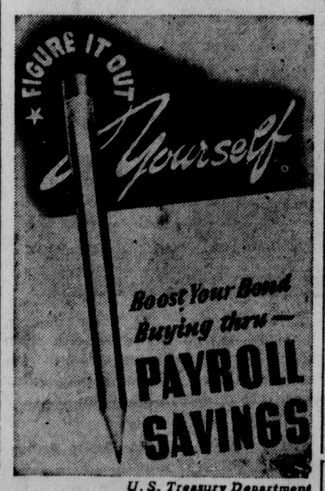

Berdie Whitley has been elected first vice president and Lotta Hopper 2nd vice-president to fill vacancies in these offices.

Hard-working chairmen and officers of our organization will refresh themselves with a get-together supper in China City sometime in August. Plans for this event will be made at our next meeting. — Maybelle C. Barker, Press-Chairman.

Cub Scouts Raise $294 For Cruiser Los Angeles

Sierra Madre's Cub Scouts turned in $294—proceeds of their circus at the old tin barn as their contribution to the fund for the construction of the U. S. Cruiser Los Angeles.

Their carnival, or circus, was a success from every conceivable angle, every youngster in the city apparently crowding into the barn between 7:30 and 10:00 o'clock. And what a hilarious time they had at the 20 or more concessions operated by the various Cub dens and Boy Scout troops.

Church Societies Conclude Another Eventful Year

Women of the Congregational Church have just brought to a close a most successful year of work in their different departments. At a recent combined meeting held at the home of Dr. A. O. Pritchard the missionary work was well epitomized by the exhibit of articles brought from China in happier days by Mrs. Earl Gossard and Mrs. Rudolph Hartman.

Ladies responsible for the year's successful activities are: Mrs. Convers L. Twycross, Miss Marjorie Adams, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Ford Blakeman, Mrs. Gerald Smith, Mrs. Louis George, Mrs. W. J. Miller, and Mrs. Frederick Whitney.

Arts - Crafts Class Needs Materials

The children who are doing arts and crafts work at the Summer Vacation School are in need of materials for their work, and are soliciting the following unused or unwanted materials: Old magazines, illustated; pictures from papers; cuttings from oil cloth, preferably white, green, brown or yellow; celluloid cuttings for house-modeling and picture-framing; very small models of domestic animals; large shallow cardboard boxes without print or illustrations. Please leave all contributions at the school before 5 p. m. any week day.

NEWCOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Archibald who have taken the Hippert house at 440 Mariposa ave. are among the late newcomers here. Mr. Archibald who is connected with Sears Roebuck in the advertising department, is quite conent to make the trip to Los Angeles each day in order that his small son Richard may have the benefit of the climate here. Richard with his two brothers Bruce and Tommy are looking forward to taking active part in the vacation activities at the local grammar school. The Archbalds' former home was at Morningside Park.

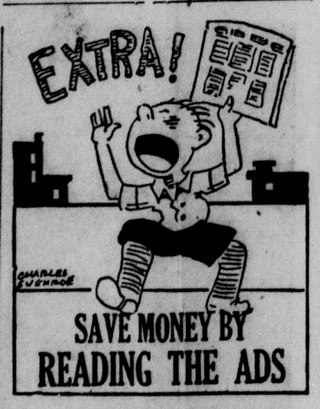

Unpredictable

Mrs. Fannie Sea of 198 W. Montecito suffered one of those unpredictable acidents in her own home Monday evening. As she was working about her home she fell, doubling her left arm under her in such a way as to break her wrist. Rushed to a hospital Mrs. Sea received immediate treatment, and the bone is setting satisfactorily.

JACK PASCHALL III

Born to Dr. and Mrs. Jack Paschall, Jr., July 18, is a six pound 14 ounce boy, Jack Paschall III. Mrs. Paschall was the former Lucille Remy of Pasadena. The father is the son of Mrs. Jack Paschall of 970 Singing Wood drive, formerly of E. Highland ave.

Round The Town

Mrs. Edith Woodruff, secretary to Congressman Carl Hinshaw, spent part of Tuesday in Sierra Madre visiting old friends here in what she calls her hometown. She expected to be joined here by her husband, Harry Woodruff, former Sierra Madre jeweler, but a telegram received Monday advised that he had been called to Boston, though he expected to join Mrs. Woodruff at the home of relatives in Utah on her return trip to Washington. She will leave about August 10. Meanwhile she is busily engaged at Hinshaw's headquarters in the Pasadena postoffice building.

Mrs. W. H. Pollgreen of 643 Wodland drive has been entertaining her daughter, Mrs. W. Roswall of Twin Falls, Idaho for several weeks. While here Mrs. Roswall visited relatives and friends in Los Angeles, Whittier and Long Beach. She was co-hostess with Mrs. Pollgreen to her sister, Mrs. Ernest Niehoff, the former Emily Pollgreen, who now lives at San Marcus, Calif.

Mrs. J. C. Dickson of 169 W. Montecito wishes to express her appreciation and thanks to many friends who called or sent flowers or cards on the occasion of her birthday July 14. She hopes that they all may have as pleasant a time on their next birthday.

Mrs. Louise Allen of 187 N. Auburn ave. is spending several days in Alhambra visiting Mrs. Emily Moyer and her daughter, Mrs. May Barlow.

Major and Mrs. P. B. Linville of 595 Alta Vista drive are entertaining guests from Los Angeles this week. Mrs. Linville's sister, Mrs. G. C. Hewitt; Mrs. J. D. Simpson, daughter of Major Linnville; and Carl Bruce Linville and wife and daugher, the major's son and family, are all here for a few days. Carl Linville is on vacation from his duties at the Citizen's National Bank, Lincoln Heights Branch, where he has been sent recently on special assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Fitzergerald of 38 N. Baldwin ave. left Wednesday for a short visit in Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Josephine E. Marr of 204 E. Sierra Madre blvd. spent Tuesday evening with her family and friends in Los Angeles where they celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Marr's brother, Dr. Chester H. Brown, former Sierra Madrean and now of Los Angeles.

The Pan-American question is of great interest to Mrs. Adria Johnson of 506 W. Grand View. Officers Elected by Nazarene Church

The Church of the Nazarene has just closed another church year with gains reported in every department. This church is little more than two years old, and has a membership of 34. The average weekly attendance of the Sunday School for the past year was 38. Rev. Mrs. Steelman has been serving as pastor for the past eight months, and under her leadership the finances have more than doubled. The pastor has been given a unanimous call to remain another year.

All officers for the new year have been installed as follows: Douglas Elliott, Sunday School superintendent; John Cochran, president; Alvin Bentz, Frank Estrada, and J. R. Mc Clung, trustees; Mrs. Lovella Cochran, Mrs. Bertha McClung, Miss Lydia Rintleman, stewards; Mrs. Dorothy Bentz, secretary-treasurer; John Cochran, choir director, and Mrs. Esther Hubbard, pianist.

Here's a Tip for All Victory Gardeners

Victory gardeners bothered with mole runs will be glad to hear about a discovery made by Frank Clawson of 41 Mount Trail ave. Moles were running away with his garden, he says, when he tried an old remedy that he had heard of. He bored small holes in every lo or 12 feet of the runs and dropped in a few castor beans, then covered the holes with a little dirt to keep the light out. He left the ground undisturbed for 36 hours, then rolled it and gave his attention to another patch. In a few days the moles had all disappeared. "I don't know," said Mr. Clawson, "whether the castor beans poison the moles,or wether the smell of them runs them away, but I found the treatment most effective and thought other gardeners ought to know about it."

"Buckle down—to work for Uncle Sam"

BEFORE washing a garment, remove breakable buttons and buckles. Pearl buttons or jeweled buckles haven't the stamina to face washing machines or hard scrubbing. Broken or missing buttons can ruin a costume, or, if unmatchable, necessitate the purchase of a new set.

Then put the money saved into U. S. SAVINGS STAMPS—to help button up Hitler! Every pay check should be budgeted to include generous help for Uncle Sam.

Interesting People Among Us

BY CATHERYN ELLIOTT

Elsie Gibson when a girl in school conceived a desire to be of service to society. Meeting an instructor who had recently been appointed general secretary for the work of the Methodist Church among Spanish-speaking children convinced her that she would be happiest at work among the children of broken homes. The result is that for many years Miss Gibson has made a home for Spanish-speaking children of broken homes at the Plaza Community Center at 72 W. Alegria ave. An average of 28 children find their security and love in the sympathetic understanding of Miss Gibson and her corps of assistants. But Miss Gibson does not confine her attention to the children when they are under her personal supervision. Her interest and love follows them in their later life. Excerpts below of letters from boys who grew up under her care speak more plainly than can an outsider as to the type of home Miss Gibson has been inspired to provide for them.

Here is part of a letter from Pvt. Donald Lopez, who is at an Army Camp in Kentucky:

"I really have a lot of fun here because the officers and men don't think they're as tough as the Ft. Knox fellows. The food and the work are really good. I've got a big kick out of this past week—three gererals came up to me and started asking me questions on how I like the army, where I am from and so on.

"I spend my working hours in Tennessee and sleep in Kentucky for I live about a mile from the Tennessee—Kentucky state line which cuts the camp in half. I hope I receive a furlough before I go across."

But he is overseas without having had his furlough.

Corp. Edwin Beach, stationed at the St. Petersburg, Fla., Army camp writes:

"I guess I told you that I got a chance to go around with Onny (Uribe) while he was here but only for a short while, for I was ent to the Tent City area and while I was there he was shipped to Kentucky. I am still a drill instructor here, and am also on the Alert Combat Force of the post. On my birthday I was promoted to the rank of corporal. That was a nice present for me all right. I take charge of a platoon of 64 men and drill and train them in all sorts of basic training. I hope to get into airplane armorer's school. There I will learn to mount guns and load bombs and ammunition on the planes, Onny will use the guns against the Japs. I'd like to load them for him, then I would feel like I was putting in my two cents worth in helping clean out those sly Japs. But whatever they give me to do I'll do my best at it. I often wonder just how long it will be until this war is over and we all come back to our homes. When it is over one of the first places I'm hitting for is 72 West Alegria air.'

Onny Uribe, mentioned in Beach's letter above wrote from Camp Campbell, Kentucky:

"I'm afraid I can't use that sweater you mentioned just now These last few weeks have been very hot here. About 100 or 106 degrees, so you can imagine just how we're sweating. And I never sweated so much as I did today. We had to go over a course about 75 yards, fixed up like a real battlefield with shell holes, logs,trenches and barbed wire. We had to advance across this area crawling on our stomachs with our heads right next to the ground and with machine gun bullets flying at us. No blanks either. I ate about a pound of dirt and I looked like a'chocolate soldier.' On our maneuvers down in South Carolina we had just the opposite. Most of the time we were down there it rained cats and dogs.

"Please send the newspapers, I'm very much interested in what Sierra Madre is doing and about my old boy friends like Bill Johnson, Burke, and a few of those boys I used to run around with."

Eliseo Lopez, with the Navy, omewhere in the Pacific, said in a recent letter: "I hope that when I am in the States again I will be able to go down to see you. Monday, June 28th, will be a year in the Navy for me."

Miss Gibson reports that Albert Becena when last heard from was at Pearl Harbor; that Alfredo Potillo is in the Mexican Army: that Salapaar is well and longs for Sierra Madre. He has been in Mexico for several years but is not in the service yet.

NUMBER 23 OF A SERIES

Beets and carrots are both "tops" for vitamins and minerals. So to avoid tiring of them, try new recipes often for variety. Serve cubed or whole beets with a sweet-tart thickened sauce—and you have delicious Harvard Beets! Try tangy orange sauce, slightly thickened with cream and orange rind. Sauce Polanaise—combine sour cream, vinegar, sugar, butter.

Try carrots au gratin on your gas range. Use a rich white sauce, hard-cooked eggs topped with butter crumbs and cheese and baked to a golden brown. Other main dishes: Bake a tasty carrot souffle, highly seasoned with a few grains of nutmeg and cayenne. And golden carrots are the making of a good old-fashioned stew!

Try smothering chicken or rabbit with a layer of carrots or onions, sliced paper-thin—then bake until tender. For variety, it's a good idea to have several jars of pickled beets on hand for meat or salad. Chopped beets and cabbage are a "must" relish with baked beans. When you thin out your carrots, pickle the very tiny ones for meat accompaniment.

TEEN-AGERS CHANCE

Still plagued with uncertainey as to just how they are going to get their 1943 crops harvested, farmers were asked by the War Food Administration this week to increase their productive acreage next year by 16 million acres—the greatest in American history!

With some help in getting the machinery and fertilizer they need and have been unable to secure in sufficient quantity ,with price and transportation adjustments, with aid in securing and maintaining farm labor—agriculture can and will measure up to the unprecedented demand.

Meanwhile, the job at hand is to get the present crop harvested.

One hundred thousand volunteers are needed for the work between now and late fall ,and a big percentage of those signing up to help will have to be teenagers, State authorities announce. They will be paid the regular agricultural wage and their supervision, says the office of Victory Farm Volunteers ,will be "everything a parent could ask for," At a Placer County girls' camp, one of the first to be established, there are seven senior councilors for 100 fruit packers.

High school boys and girls are urged immediately to join forces to help feed their big brothers at war. If they are able to turn in as good a harvesting job as the State War Council believes they will ,all California will owe the young people a debt of gratitude.

SONG OF LIBERTY

From the invasion - battered coasts of Sicily to the steaming jungles of New Guinea; from Guadalcanal to Munda; from the storm-swept Aleutians to the violently erupting "summer front" in Russia ;from hte avenging planes which roar over the Ruhr and the blazing gun decks of Allied warships—from the seven seas, and from every corner of the earth, today, there's a swelling song of liberty!

Free men are singing. And men about to be free are singing.

Perhaps you can hear the enslaved people of France and Poland ,and Norway and Holland, if you have an ear attuned to freedom. Though they dare not speak yet, you can hear them singing:

He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

And as they rise against their oppressors when the hour of liberation nears, they will strike their blow for freedom, singing:

As He died to make men holy,
Let us die to make men free.

Hitler probably can't hear that song: nor can the treacherous Jap warlords. For the songs one hears above the roar of battle are songs of the soul. And one must have a soul to hear them. But free men will hear them!

This, perhaps, is only the beginning. There are long, cruel days and months of bitter fighting ahead. But as the President said when advised of the first landings, it is the beginning of the end. And free men everywhere are singing.

If you haven't gotten around to buying a Second War Loan Bond, stop and think what it would mean to you if our soldiers hadn't gotten round to the fight.

The.... Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

HE LOOKED LIKE a young athlete—he must have been one—away up there alone on the dizzy peak of the tall steeple he'd been building. All alone—alone almost every time we'd ever watched him at his work. And we'd been watching him now for a long time, off and on; a few minutes at a time each afternoon as we passed along Sierra Madre Boulevard—a good excuse to loiter a bit in the shade of our perfect little public park. This, by the way of introduction to the Reverend Mr. James R. McClung, carpenter, blacksmith, missionary, who, single-handed, except for the occasional hours lent him by other volunteer helpers, has been making over that big old frame church-building on the boulevard, formerly the Congregational, now the Church of the Nazarene.

LATE AFTERNOON when he came down at last to the ground—end of a scorching day and a scorching week. But he didn't seem tired as he moved briskly about putting away tools and materials for the Sunday rest. We were surprised to find him so elderly—sixty last November, he said. Thin, leathery, of average height, dyed brown by the sun; dressed in white coveralls; bareheaded, bare-armed; with a shock of graying hair, clear blue eyes, and a face that an artist might have chosen for a study of that other rebuilder of old churches, St. Francis of Assise. Mr. McClung himself, we discovered, knew a good deal about St. Francis and admired him greatly.

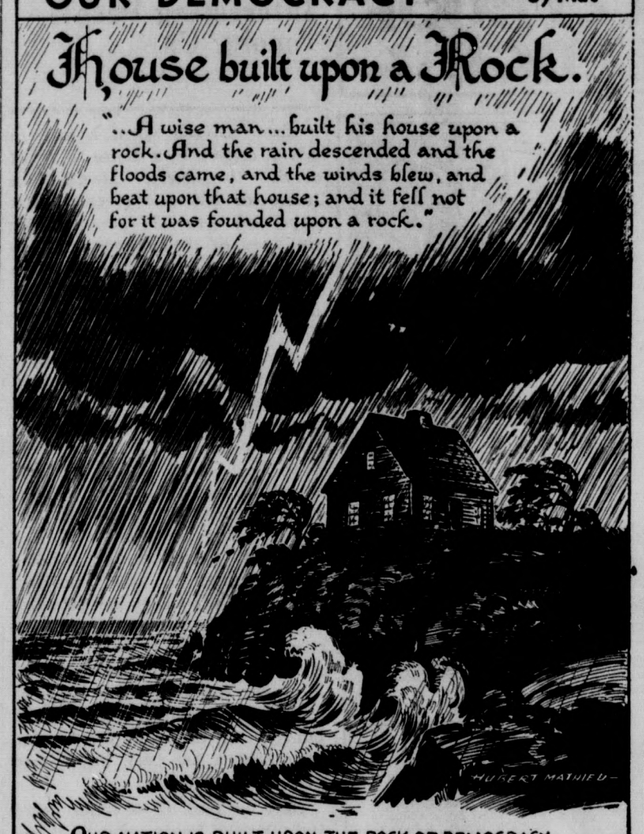

NO, HE WASN'T the pastor of this church—or of any church. Just sort of went about doing things like this. Must have built—or. rebuilt—as many as twenty churches in his time—always as an unpaid volunteer. Gave his time. Gave his work. Gave his money. Drew his own designs. One church he'd designed and built in Belvedere Gardens had been reckoned as worth at least $50,000. This old church too here in Sierra Madre, might be worth a lot of money by the time he'd finished. He'd been at work on it now for about two years, inside and out, and there was still a year or so to go. At first the Nazarenes had wanted him to fix up the little old storeroom they'd been using as their place of worship over there in Windsor Lane. It had been a small congregation and mostly poor—it still was—and no Nazarene congregation likes to go into debt. But he'd persuaded them to take this property. He'd seen many a Nazarene congregation prosper once they had the right sort of home.

WE ASKED HIM about his beginnings—where had he learned his architecture? We thought his steeple was fine—fine also the new main entrance with its fanlight. He'd never really had a chance, he said, to study architecture; just sort of picked it up. Born in Oklahoma—Territory then; his people Scotch-Irish; he'd been raised in a blacksmith shop, incidentally elarning carpentry as well. Then, during his scant school-days, taking a strong liking for draughtsmanship—making maps and so forth, then designs for churches and Sunday-schools—of which, at that time in Oklahoma, there seemed to have been a considerable dearth. Teachers also lacking; so, finally, he got himself ordained—in the Church of Christ, one of those several small sects, a good deal like primitive Methodists, which later joined up to form the Holy Church of the Nazarene.

THAT WAS THE START—more as a home-missionary than a regular preacher; starting Sunday-schools, building churches; never for pay; doing other work for money and to earn his living—blacksmith, carpenter, painter, joiner, house-wrecker. House-wrecking was what had kept him and his son off relief during the depression. And then, often, things you came by in that sort of work were useful when you got to building a new church or rebuilding an old one. As in the present case. That shining tip—the "epi"—of this new spire of the Nazarenes, for example, was the six-foot porcelain insulator he'd salvaged from an old electrical transformer he'd been called on to take down.

ALMOST FORTY YEARS, now, since he'd come to Southern California—he was living in Pasadena—and all this time doing what he was doing now. When money runs out, gets himself a paying job for a while. Then back again to some volunteer job like this one. And when this is completed, we asked him, where then? Well, he said, he'd read in a book by Theodore Roosevelt how the Indians in the high back-country of Brazil were poor and in need of learning things—how to make gardens and houses, for instance, and how to keep their babies alive. He was planning to go down there—you know, as an industrial missionary. . . . Let's add, on our own account, that in all our long talk with Mr. McClung, it was as if we were talking with—shall we say, St. Francis himself? Nothing orthodox—just brave and cheerful, hopeful for the future of the world. So, good luck to you, Mr. McClung, and may your shadow never grow less.

COUNTY CONTINUES HEALTH WORK HERE

Contracts whereby the County Health Department will continue to perform health services for the cities of Sierra Madre and Monterey Park were approved by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

What They Say ---

GLEN WATERHOUSE, director, Victory Farm Volunteers—"Food is the nation's number one problem. We're asking high school boys and girls to help a farmer feed a soldier."

SENATOR JACK TENNEY, L. A., chairman Legislative Committee on un-American Activities—"The dissolution of the Comintern is a work of fiction. Over 39,000 Communisits, schooled in its methods and now in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps will form the nucleus for general unrest after the war."

GLENN D. WILLAMAN, Sec'y. Calif. Real Estate Ass'n. — "For the 21st successive year, Califirnia realtors lead the entire nation. There is a steady demand here for good real estate investments."

School Board Names a Music Teacher

Miss Galina Wollin of Beverly Hills was elected as music teacher at the grammar school at a meeting of the school board Monday evening, to fill a vacancy created when the former instructor went into radio work. Miss Wollin, who is a graduate of U. C. L. A., specializes on the violin but is at home also with several other instruments. This is her first assignment since her graduation last year. There is yet to be chosen a physical education teacher, a shop instructor and a librarian with teaching experience.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

The burning sun of a few days has added greatly to the danger of fire and means that we must all be more alert. Men of the fire department continue to practice fire prevention and are aided much by the good work of Bill Lees as Fire Marshall and Bill Diggs, who patrols the mountain area. Both Bills keep track of incinerators that are faulty and act to see that such incinerators are replaced. Co-operation of the Forest Service is much appreciated by the local fire department.

As the older members of the fire department gradually leave the work, younger men are taking the interest these oldsters inspired. It will require a lot of deep interest to beat that shown by Frank Hildebrand, who altho' retired from active service, continues to be on hand in any emergency, and enjoys attending the meetings regularly. He has a close competitor in Charlie Brown. Charlie is always eager and ready.

We see Steve Petsel about town lately. We feel taht it will b a great day for him when his wife returns from the east. Mrs. Petsel is missed very much not only by Steve but by the community.

UNCENSORED

By LEONE BAXTER

"The only thing wrong with the Japs is that they aren't on our side," argues a champion of the high qualities of the Japanese people defending their constitutional right as citizens to move back to the Pacific Coast if this is their choice as a living place.

The spokesman answered his own argument ,of course ,for even among those Japanese who claim American citizenship the percentage of the disloyal—who "aren't on our side"—is enormously high. The figures are irrefutable, and it is high time we took them out and studied them. It is time they were impressed, too, on those who feel the strategic West Coast should shut its eyes, open its arms and take a chance.

Of the 135,000 Japanese in the country, 67 percent enjoy all the rights and privileges of citizenship. Nevertheless, 50 per cent of all those at California's Manzanar relocation center told the War Department they felt no loyalty to the United States.

Of 19,963 young Japs of military age, 4,783 said they'd prefer to fight for Tojo and against Uncle Sam.

Thirty days ago, Congressmen protesting the indiscriminate release of Japs from the relocation centers reported that 41,000 already were "at large," 13,000 of them having started for the Coast, and that 1000 a week then were going blithely out the gate "unscreened" by the FBI.

If only one Jap in that number were disloyal ,what could he accomplish in the way of sabotage? Well, Arizona authorities, pleading that no Japs be released in that State, told a Congressional committee that one trained saboteur operating there could cause more than 100 million dollars worth of damage, kill hundreds of people and possibly cause this country to lose the war. Saboteurs already have taken a flyer at the plan they had in mind, aimed mainly at Roosevelt Dam.

The possibility of incendiary forest fires, poisoned ,polluted or destroyed water systems ,of disrupted light ,telephone and transportation services ,of damage to war plants, bridges, railroads, dams and air fields is increased every time a Jap fanatic walks out of a relocation center, a free agent. And in the opinion of California's Congressman Richard Costello, they are walking out every day.

Until some means can be found to segregate the Japanese into "safe" and "unsafe" brackets, the entire Pacific Coast will vote with Salinas, the city that polled 12,667 to 1 to keep the Nips off the Coast for the duration.

Sierra Madre Women at USO Center for Men at Santa Anita

Patriotic Sierra Madre women who have been acting as hostesses and operating the canteen at the Arcadia USO center three nights a month, have added a fourth night of service beginning in July. They not only serve in the canteen but furnish the cooling fruit juices and other drinks and delectable tid bits that are served and feel deeply indebted to other patriotic citizens here who have contributed fruit, cookies, pies, doughnuts and other food items .

One night a month the canteen is in charge of Mrs. A. M. Caron, Mrs. W. R. Dedrick, Jr., Mrs. C. R. Gerke, Mrs. A. L. Suman and Mrs. R. Mulender, with Mrs. Caron as chairman. The following night the committee consists of Mrs. R. W. Carlson, Mrs. R. H. Pickett, Mrs. R. Pagenkopf, Mrs. P. Kreuscher, Mrs. C. Rizzo, Mrs. R. Besocke, Mrs. J. S. Clauss, and Mrs. Long, with Mrs. Walter Nollac as chairman. The Committee for the third day is composed of Mrs. D. Metzger, Mrs. E. J. Brodkey and Mrs. R. H. Webster, with Mrs. C. K. Whitely as chairman.

Maternity Care for Servicemen's Wives

More than three-fourths of th states have received approval by the Children's Bureau Department of Labor, of programs for medical and hospital maternity care for wives of men in the four lowest pay grades of armed forces. The programs also include medical care for babies. A service man's wife may make application for complete medical care before and for six weeks after childbirth. She may also apply for medical care for her child to extend throughout the child's first year of life. To get uch care, all that the wife needs to do is to fill out simple forms, which, if her own doctor is unable to furnish copies, she can get from the State health department.

The price of war is going up! Right now, it is costing Uncle Sam on an average of $730 per year for each man, woman and child in America—the whole 130 million of them. Last year it was $555 per person, and three years ago only $46 each. In totals our daily war cost is $265 million, or $97 billion for the fiscal year. It is difficult to keep a perspective on money values when such mammoth figures are quoted. Yet, every dollar spent must either be borrowed or collected in taxes. Somebody must pay it Using our money for legitimate war purposes is a small enough price to pay for the preservation of our American way of life.

There are persistent reports that nationwide rationing of hard liquor is just around the corner. Stocks of whisky, according to the latest bottle census, will last about four years, if released sparingly. But if present buying goes on unrestrained, the country will be "dry" in twelve months—without a vote in Congress, or any help from the W.C.T.U. In California, incidentally, many retail dealers are already limiting their customers.

* * *

Comes it now, the revolution! And right within the Armed Forces! American service men, under the influence of coatless uniforms are creating a trend away from coats and jackets. And the clothing industry is worried. Says Ralph Schneider, president of a men's clothing firm, "We must meet the coatless military influence. We'll have all we can do to get men to put on coats when the war is over." For years there has been the threat that some day men would throw off the yoke of conventional garb and wear clothes designed for greater freedom and comfort. The well-dressed man of tomorrow may wear knee-length (or shorter) trousers, no coat, no hat, and open-necked shirt. Look funny? Maybe he will—until people get used to it.

* * *

While Governor Earl Warren has publicly disavowed any intention of becoming a candidate for President in '44, it is altogether possible the lightning may strike in another quarter. If either Willkie or Dewey ends up as the G. O.P. standard bearer, Ctlifornia's Governor has an excellent chance, the dopesters say, of being offered second place on the ticket. Geographically, at least, a New York-California team would be a political natural.

* * *

The lady of the house will not want to "come out of the kitchen" if she can have one like the post-war model displayed recently in the East. In fact, she won't have to, for the "kitchen of tomorrow" will include ample space as well as a dining alcove!

And, believe it or not, there'll be no pots and pans to wash for she will cook in the same dishes used for serving. Faucets will be controlled by foot pedals, and sink and dishwasher will be artistically hidden from sight.

In other words ,the post-war kitchen is designed to lure Mrs. America back to the home and keep her happy when she is no longer needed on the assembly line! And if she wants the afternon off, there will be gadgets and timing devices aplenty to tend the dinner while it cooks.

Picking Apricots at Harvest Camp Thrills Girls

Elizabeth and Joan Clougherty of 267 E. Montecito have just returned from a Y. W. C. A. Harvest Camp where with 300 other girls they uicked and dried the Moorpark apricot crop for our boys on the fighting front.

This Harvest Camp was in the nature of an experiment ,but was so successful—in the neighborhood of 1500 boxes of apricots being harvested—that other later camps on the same order are contemplated. The girls were housed in the Moorpark High School, ten girls in a room ,with a teacher in charge; meals were taken in the school cafeteria, the girls paying their board out of their earnings.

Not only did the girls do their bit in a patriotic venture, but they had such a good time that several of them cried when it was time to leave camp and go home. Elizabeth and Joan are looking forward to another two weeks in a similar camp near Long Beach, picking lima beans.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

Sierra Madre scored again Saturday when the Bundles for America party at the home of Miss Thomasella Graham netted more than $500. The very next day came an appeal for some hundreds of layettes for young expectant mothers whose husbands are in the armed forces. That call had gone first to the Red Cross, which is so overburdened that it had referred it to our group—and our group had the money on hand so it immediately bought material and went to work. We don't like to brag but I hear that so far even Pasadena hasn't had a Bundles for America party as successful as ours.

Just about all the women in Bundles for America here are in the Red Cross, too, and the organizations supplement one another instead of competing. Mrs. R. E. Wright, who has done such valiant and effective work for the Red Cross, the Blood Bank, Bundles for Britain and everything else of the kind, showed the spirit which exists, or should exist, when she paid $50 for the $20 bill Commander Wassell had carried all through his thrilling adventure in Java, not to keep for herself but to give to some Navy Relief party where it can be auctioned again.—and maybe again and again after that. How we are going to miss that gal when she leaves us in September.

Mrs. Mary Goodfellow and "Miss Tommie" are very grateful to all who helped so generously and spiritedly in making the party a success, and all the others are grateful to Mrs. Goodfellow and Miss Tommie.
